

Art

Classes in Art this year will include explorations with pencils, crayons, paints, pastels, clays, and inks.

Students will learn new techniques with products including mixing different products to create art.

Students will be exposed to new art forms and the works of various artists.

Students will also be expected to share their art with the community.

